If the student made the first attempts to find a job, and they were not crowned with success, do not despair.

The fact is that in the face of tough competition to find a worthy job a graduate of the university without the experience is very problematic.

Of course, you can no longer wait for a profitable and promising proposal in a specialty, but the miracle may not happen.

That is why the work experience of the work experience can be started with a part-time, which has nothing to do with the main specialty, eld.

It may be a bartender or waitress, dishwasher or assistant cook, courier or promoter, seller - consultant or handyman.

The main thing is to pay properly, and the official employment should also ask a question.

Such a part-time job guarantees temporary financial stability, eliminates the sense of its own worthlessness, and will also provide career growth albeit with a specialty.

The main thing is not to sit at home waiting for a miracle, but to spin, to work out experience, look for advantageous offers, turn out of not always standard situations.

There is a category of students who, like the demobs of the army, are confident that their main life mission was training at the university, and then nothing to strive for nothing.

In fact, this is an incorrect approach, because only with the cherished "crust" in the hands of long-standing dreams will finally be carried out.

So only after the release comes the long-awaited time of fateful changes, which will make feel an independent and financially secured person.

Tips for graduates

If the status of a student is forever lost, and further life seems sad and unsuccessful, do not despair.

These alarming thoughts attend everyone without exception graduates, but this does not mean that it is necessary, in detail Plankton, sailing for the flow.

This is where the advice of teachers who were voiced in happy student years. But what about?

1. Do not delay the celebration of the prom, since the further fate of the newly minted specialist is not defined, and it is necessary to somehow settle the situation, starting the search for work in a timely manner.
2. You do not need to be depressed and nostalgic for outgoing student. Indeed, it was a touching time in the life of every person, but there are only the best times in front.
3. Do not run from extreme to extreme, and before agreeing to the position, it will not hurt to learn its hidden prospects and positive parties. Doubtful proposals for work is best to immediately exclude from the so-called "track record".
4. Accent to do at work in the specialty, and not to choose in favor of a greater salary. Position must be in perspective, otherwise it will very soon seem boring and irrelevant.
5. High wages at the first employment after the end of the university is not and can not be. At first, the student demonstrates his knowledge and aspirations, and after his personal quality work on him.
6. If you do not want to part with the university, and a promising work did not appear on the horizon, you can continue learning in graduate school and increase your "bar" as a researcher with a prospect of teaching at the university.
7. Do not comprehensive about the application to the diploma. It is important to understand that no one from employers pay attention to the estimates, the main thing is the fact of the presence of "crust" about higher education for a particular specialty.

Conclusion: So there is always a way out, you just need to choose a plan for yourself and clearly follow him in further life. Such a competent approach to its further fate will help to achieve a grandiose success and a significant position in modern society.
